

Contemplations

The activity of Christ is self-emptying love, and a Christian is one who has become selfless generosity.